PARK MAP BREAKDOWN

PARK MAP BREAKDOWN (cont.)

NANOLAND is a theme park built out of a small island off the coast of Florida. It is made up of five distinct areas all centered around a tall dark tower, visible from anywhere in the park, which is topped off with an enormous holographic sock puppet frog head. The park is powered via traditional animatronics and mechanics, with a layer of fully animated nanobots draped on every surface, allowing rides and attractions to be repaired and updated instantaneously. Think of it as real-world CGI. In the event of an emergency, tall metallic walls rise from the seas surrounding the park, to ensure retention of the company's proprietary technology. The only entrance/exit to the park is through the docks outside the gates in Nostalgia Bay. Note: None of this is to scale. I only really included things that are explicitly mentioned in the book. If you want to fill in the gaps with more rides, restaurants, trees and buildings and such, please, by all means, do so.

FROG TOWER

Tall, dark tower, visible from anywhere in the park.

1. Frankie Frog's Big Glowing Head

Frankie Frog is the primary mascot of the park, a sock puppet frog that is visually and legally distinct from Kermit. Frog Tower is topped off with his head, giant and semi-transparent and glowing, glancing around at guests and sometimes making announcements.

2. Tall Black tower

Sporadic windows, a few ramps, mostly black

3. Entrance to the tower via Nostalgia bay

NOSTALGIA BAY

Modeled after the average suburban neighborhood at the time of the average parents' youth, Nostalgia Bay offers various dining and gift opportunities and a moment for guests to acclimate themselves to the island before doing anything more exciting. Originally set in the 1950s, the Bay has been updated to the 1980s, complete with video arcades, boxy cars, chain restaurants and toy stores, as well as a lot of the original attractions, because nothing was more popular in the eighties than fifties nostalgia.

1. Frank Nano statue

Frank Nano is the founder of Nanoland. He's got a Frankie Frog puppet on his hand. Tall, thin white guy, long hair, big beard, wearing a baseball cap, aviator sunglasses, flannel shirt, jeans. Like if Jim Henson dressed up like both Steven Spielberg and George Lucas.

2. Helicopter Landing Pad

Big H in a circle on a raised platform. Important to the plot!

3. Restaurants/Gift Shops/Restrooms/Classic Cars

50s hot rods mixed with 80s sports cars

4. Video Arcade (currently 80s arcade games)

5. Main Entrance

Like the main gate to any theme park/zoo. Turnstiles under a roof. Probably closest to Disney Hollywood Studios:

6. Loading Docks

Where guests disembark from the boats before heading to the main entrance

7. Boats to/from Florida mainland

Only way to get on/off the island (besides the helicopter pad)

FANTASY KINGDOM

Fairy tales! Princesses! Dragons! Mermaids! Everything old and European and public domain lives here in the Fantasy Kingdom.

1. Mermaid Princess Ride

Indoor boat ride, kind of like It's a Small World/Pirates of the Caribbean. Big Princess Mermaid statue (legally distinct from Ariel the Little Mermaid) out front.

2. Princess Photo Pavilion

Looks like a fairytale castle. Where guests go to meet/get their pictures taken with the Nano Princesses.

3. Princess Dee, waving at camera

Black/African-American princess (blue dress)

4. Princess Winnifred

White, blond Princess (pink dress)

5. Landscaping

A row of trees in planters. Important to the plot

6. Carousel/Merry-Go-Round

Ride on some fantasy creatures (unicorns, pegasus, gryphons, that sort of thing)

7. Gift shops/restrooms

8. Dragon Coaster

Dragon-themed roller coaster, sort of shaped vaguely like a dragon, with a big metal dragon's head on one end. Wraps itself around the whole SE side of the area. Track bobs up and down, simulating the dragon's breathing.

PREHISTORIC FOREST

Ancient animals walk among guests in this primordial forest, where guests can ride a few different water rides and interact with nanomatronic prehistoric beasts.

1. Waterfall Mountain

Log flume ride designed to look like a big mountain, with a waterfall coming out of a cave near the top.

2. Pterodactyl Fliers

Kids can ride pterodactyls in the area, so one is represented here.

3. White water raft surrounding forest

There's a river surrounding the area where you can float through on those round yellow rafts.

4. A Wooly Mammoth

Kids can ride a wooly mammoth, too. This isn't Jurassic Park. We've got Ice Age animals, which is completely different.

5. More of the raft ride

See #3.

6. Savage Stunt Show (crossed spears on the sign)

Closed for remodeling (racism)

7. Giant Sloth/Megatherium

His name is Big Sam. One of these guys:

8. Gift shops/restrooms

Star Squad™ Presents: BATTLEZONE X

Strap on your sensors and arm your laser rifles in this outer space adventure world, where the battle is never over and everything is similar to – but visually distinct from! – something from the movie “Star Wars”.

1. Space Combat Jets
Not X-Wings
2. Gift Shop
3. A little robot guy with wheels and a TV screen for a head
4. Time Breakers: The Ride
Important to the plot. Indoor simulator ride, so just a big building with a sign out front.
5. Galactic Dogfight Simulator
Spaceship ride, also indoors
6. Gorilla wearing a bandolier
Not in any way the famous wookiee “Chewbacca”
7. Galactic Colosseum
Enormous laser tag arena where guests can compete with each other – and nanomatronic aliens and monsters – to become Champion of Space.
8. Gift Shops/restrooms
9. Space-Themed Restaurant

PUPPET PADDOCK

Little kid area, themed around the original Nano puppet characters, who are kind of like if Mickey and Donald were the Muppets. No cartoons, this world went straight from puppets to real world CGI.

1. Kids coaster
Looks like a choo-choo train!

2. Puppet theater

Tiny village with lots of windows, where puppets pop out and put on little comedy shows

3. Mad Mallard

Donald Duck mascot costume, except he's based on a puppet and he's one of those brown ducks with the green heads

4. Frog Fountain

Topped off with statues of Frankie and Frannie Frog dancing

5. Gift shops/restaurant/restrooms

6. Sword in the stone

Whoever draws this sword shall be King (makes more sense in Fairytale Kingdom but there's story reasons why it's here)

7. Dingus Dog

Goofy but he's a golden retriever.

8. Another Kids Ride

Cars on spokes surrounding a spinning pole. Like the Dumbo ride.

MAGIC KINGDOM MAP

A two-day visit is recommended for maximum enjoyment of all six lands. We suggest you begin in Tomorrowland on your first day visit and in Adventureland on your second day. To save time, we suggest you stop for lunch either before noon or after 2 p.m. A second or third day also allows you time to have lunch in one of the Walt Disney World resorts, explore the tropical paradise of Discovery Island, splash at the River Country swimming hole or browse around the Walt Disney World Village.

Please Note:
Shoes and shirts must be worn at all times in the Magic Kingdom and aboard all transportation vehicles. We request that there be no flash photography, eating, drinking, or smoking, please, in any Magic Kingdom attraction. Sorry, food may not be brought into the Magic Kingdom.
